a. Mission

The establishment of support points in the Latvian SSR to be utilized in further operations into Latvia and USSR proper.

b. Accomplishments

Most of the support material requested by the field for the mounting of this operation has been dispatched to the field. The three man Latvian agent team is completing its training in a satisfactory manner. It is expected that the agents will be infiltrated into Latvia in the first part of May. Further recruitment of Latvian personnel is proceeding in Germany and the United States. Two agent-prospects are now being assessed in the United States.
